

School Board

The purpose of School Boards is to establish much closer links between schools and parents and to give parents a greater say in how schools are run.

The Board's basic duties and functions include:

- Keeping in touch with parents' views and reporting to parent
- encouraging links between the school and parents
- receiving and responding to reports from the Headteacher and the education authority
- taking part in the appointment of senior school staff
- approving the Headteacher's plans for buying books and materials
- helping to set dates for occasional holidays and arranging the use of the school outwith normal hours

Who serves on the School Board?

Parents (elected by parents), staff members (teachers elected by their colleagues) and co-opted members (chosen by the other Board members to represent the community). Parent members will have a majority.
